Re: SmartEtailng, Inc. v. CrimsonBikes, LLC
Court File No.: 20-CV-2650

Dear Judge Schultz:

As you may recall, the Plaintiff sought an Order staying these proceedings in favor of involuntary Chapter 7 proceedings in Bankruptcy Court in the District of Massachusetts. Your Honor granted that stay for a period of 30 days, but required a letter providing an update to the Court. This letter will serve as an update – the final one under the circumstances unless the Court would like further regular updates.

Although the defendant in this case, as Debtor, filed a Motion to Dismiss the Involuntary Petition for Bankruptcy filed in Massachusetts, it subsequently withdrew that Motion and moved to convert the case to a voluntary Chapter 11 proceeding. The Bankruptcy Court has issued an Order granting that request and converting the Involuntary Petition to a Chapter 11 Bankruptcy proceeding, and an Order for Relief (and automatic stay) was issued effective May 20, 2021. I am attaching a copy of the Order signed by Hon. Janet E. Bostwick, Bankruptcy Judge.

This matter appearing to be subject to the Order for Relief, plaintiff will not oppose a Motion by the Defense to stay this matter pending the outcome of the bankruptcy case.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Patrick J. Kelly
